REWARDS TRIP DETAILS

The Rewards Trip is open to all active jBloom Designers in good standing regardless of title or date of enrollment. A trip tracker calculates your progress on the home page of your virtual office. The statistics are used to determine Rewards Trip earners. The Home Office will announce the earners of the Rewards Trip on December 1, 2024 and until that time, results are unofficial. Throughout the qualification period Designers may inquire with home office to verify the requirements necessary to meet the Rewards Trip rules.

Your newly-enrolled personally-recruited Designers count toward the Rewards Trip requirements so long as they enroll and do their volume during the qualification period of July 12 – November 30, 2024. Leadership points are determined by your PAID-AT TITLE each month. Additional point opportunities may arise at the discretion of the company. Personal Volume is the amount of volume from a sales order contributing to qualification. Personal volume excludes kits, supplies or any host free products and 1/2 price items.

To receive the sunglasses you must hit 12,000pts by October 31, 2024

If a Designer wants to extend his/her trip before the published dates of travel, it is on a first-come-first serve basis. The cost for additional nights are $315/person/night. Additional nights are not guaranteed and nights after the event dates are not blocked.

Designer must email and then call the office to request additional nights. Any additional nights approved cannot be changed and the added cost is the responsibility of the Designer even if they cancel. The travel dates of the trip are planned for Jan. 22- 27th for 5 nights, 23-27th for the 4 nights and 24-27th for the 3 nights.

Designers are responsible for booking their own airfare and getting those details to jBloom by December 9th for company to arrange transportation to and from resort. Airfare re-imbusement will be given to Designer by December 5, 2024 via direct deposit. The re-imbusement may not include any upgrades. Airfare only. Any Designer requesting a change to itineraries after making a confirmed reservation will be at the Designer's expense. Resort accommodations are provided with all-inclusive amenities at the Hyatt Zilara Riviera Maya Mexico 40 minutes (approximately) from the airport. Breakfast, lunch, dinner, beverages and snacks provided unless deemed premium upgrades by the resort, which would be at the Designer's expense. US Passport required for travel at the Designer's expense.

In the event a trip earner is unable to travel, jBloom will supply all swag to the Designer, but there is no cash value option for the trip. Prize packages are not transferrable to another individual and guest may not be a current jBloom Designer. Incentive earners who choose to travel as a single may be asked to pair with another jBloom Designer earner to fulfill double-occupancy requirements or given the option to room as a single with a per day upcharge. Those earners will be contacted in advance prior to booking the room.
